As a reliable round, it is a sees of Croup, Whooping Cough, or sudden Colds, and for the prompt rellef and cure of throat and lung diseases, Ayer's Cherry Pectorals invaluable. Mrs. E. G. Edgeriy, Council Bludis, Jowa, writes: "I consider Ayer's Cherry Pectoral a most important remedy for home use. I have tested its curative power, in my family, many times during the past thirty years, and have never known it to fail. It will relieve the most serious affections of the throat and lungs, whether in children or adults." John H. Stoddard, Petersburg, Va., writes: "I have never found a medicine equal to

Death of Mrs. Cynthia Downing.

The friends of Mr. Charles Downing will regret to hear of the death of his wife, Mrs. Cynthia Downing, which occurred Friday afteraoon at his home near Washington after a brief illness. She was a most estimable lady of a gentle and loving disposition and her death will be sincerely mourned by a large circle of friends and relatives. The funeral will be preached to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock at her late home by Rev. A. Vardenan of Mayalick, after which her remains will be interred in the Mayaville Cemetery.

The wedding of Mr. Ed. H. Watson

The Campbelisville, (Ky.) Methodists have had a revival recently resulting in sixty-diversed properties. The weeding of Mr. Ed. H. Watson and Miss Nellie Albert at the Episcopal diversed in the treatment of neuralgic affect dions than anything else I have ever used.
